EVIDENCE THE CLINTONS ARE SCREWING OBAMA

To The Point has long maintained that the Clintons will do what they can to make sure Obambi loses in November - for only then does Hillary have a chance for the White House in 2012.

Now there's more evidence.

In a private meeting earlier this month (9/10) in his Harlem office, Clinton met at his request with the publishers of a major online news site. I cannot be more explicit at the request of my source.

After claiming Obama will win because his campaign has registered two million new Democrat voters, Clinton casually mentioned:

"You know, one thing that nobody has really checked out yet is Obama's long-standing and deep relationship with Louis Farrakhan. It's going to really hurt him badly once it's fully disclosed."

Hint: research and reveal Obama's connection with the most rabidly anti-Semitic black racist in America.

Finally we have specific evidence of Clinton submarining Obama. This isn't the only instance, of course. The Clintons are launching a full-court press to ensure Obama's defeat.

Take Pennsylvania. It's a must-win state for Obambi. He cannot do so without the legendarily corrupt "overvote" support of former Philadelphia mayor and now governor of Pennsylvania, Ed Rendell. As Philly mayor in 2004, Rendell's machine stuffed enough ballot boxes in South Philly to ensure victory for Kerry.

Last April, Hillary defeated Obambi in the Dem Pennsylvania primary by 10%. Note who is raising her hand in victory in this story: Gov. Ed Rendell.

What Clinton has asked Rendell to do is shut off the fraud machine. And more. Word is that Rendell intends to shut down the independent vote fraud organizers of ACORN in Philly and Pittsburgh.

Obambi can kiss the Keystone State adios.

Thus the left can also kiss goodbye any hope for their latest delusion - that Obambi will dump Biden and throw a "Hail Hillary" pass.

As explained this week by Jack Kelly, the speculation is that Saracuda is going to field dress Biden and make moose stew out of him in their October 2 debate. So on October 3, the entire leftie media/blogosphere chorus will deafeningly demand Hillary replace Slow Joe.

She will tell Obambi to not even think about it.

She and Bubba have too many fun October Surprises planned for Obambi. There'll be lots more. One reason why: They desperately do not want an Obambi Justice Department to investigate them. The Clintons are fighting for their lives here.

That is almost more important than the second reason: If Obambi wins, Hillary is a historical footnote; if he loses, he is, and she is the leader of the Democrat Party. And McCain Justice will leave them alone.

The Clintons have got to make sure O=Zero on November 4.
