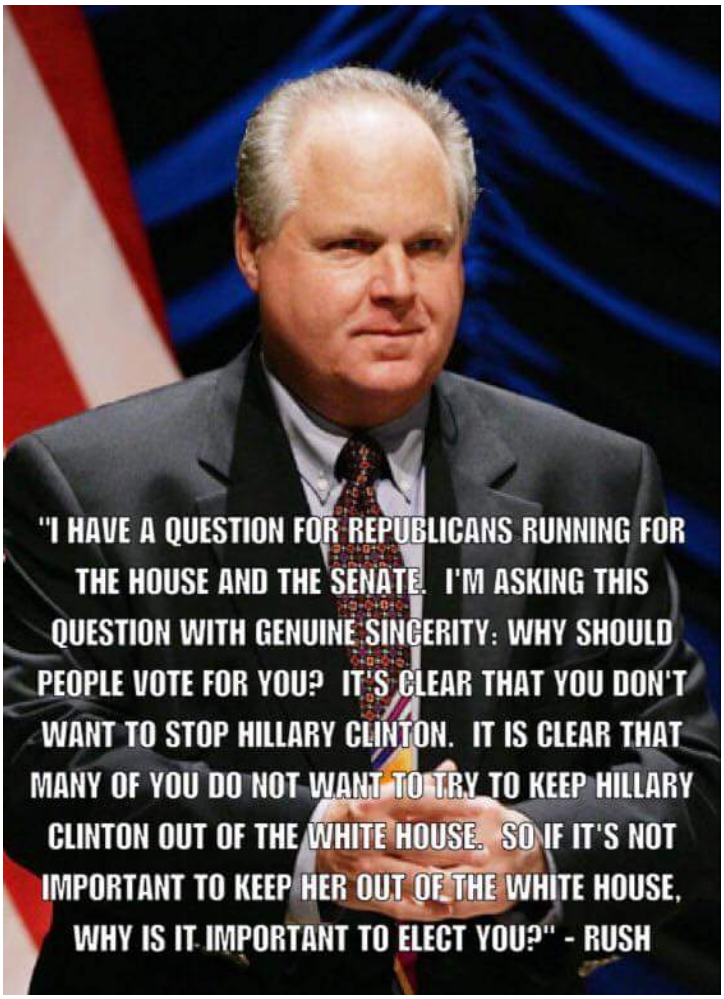
HALF-FULL REPORT 10/14/16



That's the question of the week, isn't it? "Important for whom?" is the follow-up question. It's critically important for the Pub Elite because "We'll control the rubble," as I wrote about on Wednesday (10/12).

But is it important for the rest of us? The Pubs will say it is, so their majorities in Congress will block her lawlessness and Scotus appointments. The riposte is, you didn't stand up to Zero for 8 years, so how can we possibly believe you'll stand up to her?

We are now 25 days away from knowing whether America has a future or not. Right now it's looking like the latter.

The entirety of the corporate media has abandoned the slightest pretense of any objectivity whatever and is waging an all-out war upon Trump, with every lie, smear, and distortion they can dream up.

Hope for the former, however, was provided by Trump's speech yesterday, Our Civilization Is at a Crossroads of History -- truly extraordinary, an absolute must-read and must-view.

"There is nothing the political establishment will not do — no lie that they won't tell, to hold their prestige and power at your expense," said Trump yesterday (10/13). Their pathological perfidy is directed at him because, "our campaign represents a true existential threat like they haven't seen before."

The obverse is that a Hillary Presidency will be an existential threat to the very existence of America. That is because she has already corrupted the principal law enforcement agency in the country – see the IBD editorial yesterday (10/13), FBI Director Comey Lied and the Scandal Died – and will simply abolish any semblance of the rule of law residing in the White House.

This will mean for many that we will no longer have any moral obligation to obey any federal edict or regulation. We will instead have a moral obligation to disobey them. We will have a moral obligation to vote only for state and local politicians who pledge to defy federalie edicts even to the point of secession from the US, and to move to those states who do so.

No rule of law means there is no law to obey, just the guns of stormtroopers and the Gestapo. That's the future of Hillary's Criminal America.

My single greatest fear, expressed in the HFR for months, is that a PIAPS Presidency is baked in the cake due to voter fraud. Others are taking notice this week, with The Federalist saying Voter Fraud Is Real – Here's the Proof, and the AT asking, Are Polling Firms Now Factoring in Democratic Voter Fraud?

Michelle Malkin is asking, "Will Illegal Foreign Voters Steal the Election?" It's a rhetorical question, for the answer is Yes. It's the very purpose of Zero's open borders immigration policy, to let in millions of illegal aliens, give them welfare, get them to the polls to vote Dem and keep the welfare coming.

If there is an insuperable obstacle to Trump winning, Dem voter fraud is it. And it seems there are no good solutions to prevent it. If you know of any – with 25 days to go – please post them on the Forum.

There are some rays of light in the darkness. On Wednesday (19/12), CBS in Pittsburgh reported over 100,000 Dems have switched their voting registration to Republican this year, and that 240,000 new voters have also joined the Pub Party.

Also on Wednesday, NBC News reported that "Positive Opinion of Trump Grows after Second Debate." And today (10/14), Rasmussen, the best pollster in the country, reports for the last two days (10/13-14), Trump leads Hillary +2 nationwide.

Very interestingly, Rasmussen yesterday (10/13) reported, Voters Rate Bill Clinton's Behavior Toward Women Worse Than Trump's.

Are these just grasping for straws in the riptide of Dem voter fraud? We can hope not.

One reason for hope is that Ramussen poll on Slick Willie. "Bill Clinton is a rapist!" is a meme that could go wildfire viral fast. Thus big time kudos to Alex Jones on InfoWars for rewarding $100,000 of his money to people who get at least five seconds of airtime brandishing the accusation:

Yesterday (10/13), famed reporter Michael Isikoff demanded that NBC release its full interview of Juanita Broaddrick, taped 17 years ago, in which she recounted being violently raped by Bill "Put some ice on it" Clinton – and NBC edited out her explaining how Hillary smeared and discredited her.

And if you want final confirmation that Hillary Clinton is an evil human being, read the London Daily Mail's account of Kathy Shelton: Child rape victim comes forward for the first time in 40 years to call Hillary Clinton a 'liar' who defended her rapist by smearing her, blocking evidence and callously laughing that she knew he was guilty.

The story will break your heart. Hillary irretrievably ruined the life of a horrifically raped 12 year old girl and laughed about it. How depraved can you get?

Well, more depraved would be voters ignoring her and her husband's depravity and criminality, and electing her President of the United States. A country that does that is not worth saving, so don't be surprised if Providence decides it isn't.

"This is our moment of reckoning as a society and as a civilization itself." Trump said that last night, and he is right.

Is there a Hero of the Week in the midst of all this? Trump certainly is in both his crushing Hillary in the second debate on Sunday (10/09 full text here) and his speech yesterday.

David Goldman (aka Spengler) believes that Trump looking Hillary right in the eye on Sunday with tens of millions watching, and telling her she belongs in jail means "Trump will win the national battle for legitimacy."

Yet we have to give the HOTW nod this week to Julian Assange and Wikileaks.

Today (10/14), Wikileaks released Part 7 of the hacked Podesta Emails. That makes 10,169 so far with thousands more by election day. Podesta is the Clintons' closest confidant and operator, Bill's chief of staff in the White House and Hillary's campaign chairman.

The revelations in the emails from him, Hillary, and Dem heavyweights are the one thing countering the enemedia's smear campaign of Trump. Here's a typical headline: Wikileaks Clinton campaign emails show bigotry against Catholics, Latinos, and possible collusion in DOJ investigation.

From Bill getting a birthday check for $1 million from the government of ISIS-funding Qatar, to Podesta owning 75,000 shares of a Putin-related company, it goes on and on, the corruption is infinite.

John Bolton considers the worst Wikileaks revelation is that Hillary is an advocate of "open borders." She actually believes that "the world has to get ready for open borders" -- which means no countries and no sovereignty at all.

Who could possibly care about Trump's locker room language compared to this?

And the steady drumbeat of Wikileaks exposure of Clinton Corruption will continue now, day after day, like Chinese water torture on voters' foreheads until they can't stand it and vote for Trump. It certainly could be. Thanks, Julian.

Now for the most absurdly laughable headline of the week: United Nations human rights commissioner claims Trump is 'dangerous' to the world (and if you're wondering, UN man's country locks up journalists and doesn't let Muslim women marry Christian men)

That's the actual Daily Mail headline. You can't make this up – an Islamofascist is the UN Human Rights Commissioner.

Well, you couldn't make this up either: Bob Dylan Wins the Nobel Prize for Literature. Yep, Nobel literature is just blowin' in the wind…..

So – what's the bottom line for this week, 25 days out until Nov. 8?

Six years ago (July 2010), Angelo Codevilla wrote "America's Ruling Class – and the Perils of Revolution." He called the ruling class the Court Party, and the rest of us the Country Party.

Joel Kotkin in The New War Between the States this week (TTP 10/13) makes the divide between the Ephemeral States and the Heartland States.

Donald Trump said yesterday that Nov. 8 is a choice between the two: Ruling Class/Court Party/Ephemerals or Ruled Class/Country Party/Heartlanders.

That choice is yet to be made. The future has not yet happened. Countless voters have not yet made up their mind and a great many won't until election day. It's never over until it's over.

Trump is ahead or tied in the two most reliable polls (Rasmussen and LA Times/USC). A great deal depends on the third and final debate next Wednesday (10/19). If Trump triumphs again, he will surge ahead.

Now is the time to go all out for your country. Expect many more October Surprises and Black Swans. Take them in stride. Remember the immortal words of Winston Churchill and commit yourself to them:

> "Never give in. Never give in. Never, never, never, never—in nothing, great or small, large or petty—never give in, except to convictions of honor and good sense. Never yield to force. Never yield to the apparently overwhelming might of the enemy."

Never. We can win this. The time is now. Let's do it.
