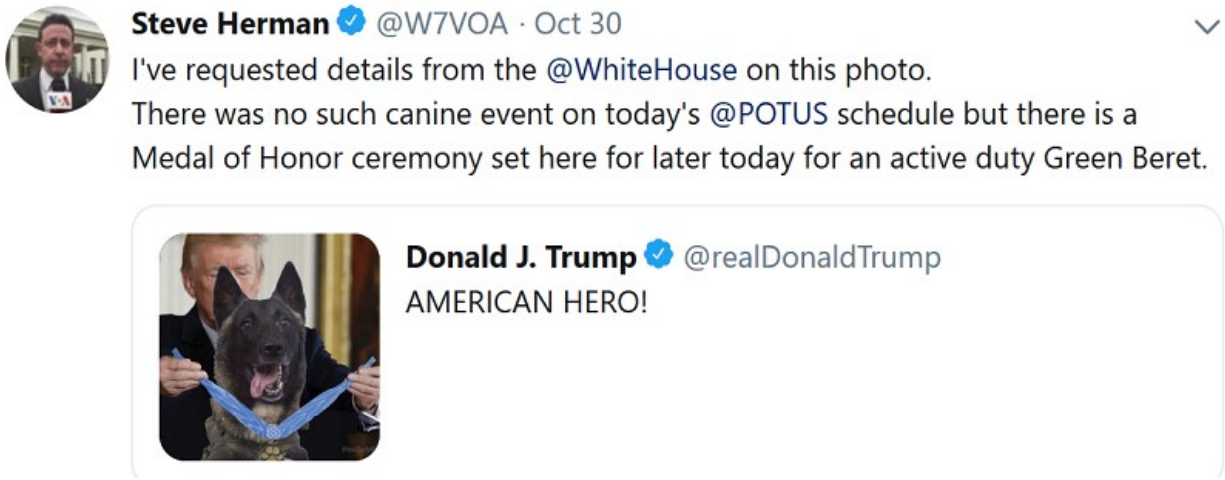
HALF-FULL REPORT 11/01/19

Once you pick yourself off the floor from laughing too hard from this, realize that every member of the cabal of DC Dem Dirtbags – Schiff, Brennan, Comey, McCabe et al – are asking themselves the same question.

It is no accident, comrades, that POTUS retweeted the Daily Wire's joke photoshop of him presenting the MOH to Conan the Hero Dog:

Proving yet again that POTUS is The Master at triggering Demtard/Mediatard outrage which every normal person sees as humorless idiocy.

As the Daily Wire documents (10/30), the media's idiot cake was taken by Voice of America's Steve Herman who tried to spin it up into a serious scandal:



How does a guy dumb as tree frog get to report to the world via VOA what is happening at the White House? Then again, he's got a lot of 2-digit IQ company among the White House Press Corps.

The Enemedia freakout was so ludicrous that even Matt Taibbi of Rolling Stone – who is so lefty he wrote the unhinged attack on Trump, Insane Clown President – couldn't stand it: Baghdadi Story Reveals Broken Media (10/28).

> "The Democrat-friendly press in the Trump years has become a bullhorn of caricatured bellyaching… In what increasingly feels like a monolithic bloc of anti-Trump media at the New York Times, Washington Post, CNN, MSNBC, etc., the Baghdadi headlines were a remarkable collection of angst-ridden talking points."

Even the lefty BBC couldn't resist lampooning WaPo for calling Baghdadi an "austere religious leader," then linking to the new Twitter site, #WaPoDeathNotices. They're funny – here's DJTJr's contribution. Enjoy.

This, however, is not just funny, it's flat-out hilarious:

Pelosi's hair was bonfired by this – she and her ilk like Schifty are "leaking machines" who cannot be trusted when American lives are at stake. Beautiful to see her meltdown, especially gratifying to know that she knows POTUS could care less about her hurt feelings.

While this is serious: Adam Schiff Accused of Witness Tampering. Turns out Shifty has been doing a lot of that, each instance of which is a federal crime. As we wait for IG Horowtiz's FISA report and DOJ prosecutor Durham's criminal investigation of Brennan-Comey-McCabe, you can expect at some point of the Dem's illegal "impeachment inquiry" to see reports that AG Barr is investigating Schiff's blatant witness tampering crimes. Lock him up!

The Dems' impeachment obsession is a farce of course. Not one single Pub voted for the phony inquiry's "rules" yesterday (10/31) because there are no rules at all, Dems get to do whatever they want. So expect massive pushback – Pubs refusing to cooperate, witnesses uncoached by Dems disobeying subpoenas to testify, White House officials doing the same.

Yesterday (10/31) for example, John Bolton's lawyer said he won't testify voluntarily and might not under a subpoena either .

But here's the biggest fly in the Dems' impeachment ointment. They gained control of the House last November by winning a lot of seats in districts carried by Trump two years prior. If those newbies vote for impeachment, they can kiss their seats goodbye. The GOP only needs to flip 19 seats to take Pelosi Galore's gavel away. The RNC's got oodles of cash and volunteers to take out dozens of Dem vulnerables.

The must-read is in this morning's (11/01) Spectator: Impeachment Vote Will Cost These Dems Their Seats. Twelve are named, but there are more than 30 all told.

Of course, the – the! – must-read of the week is Paul Sperry's exposé of who Schiff's "Whistleblower" is on Wednesday (10/30) – a Trump-hating Obama holdover at the NSC fired in June 2017 and who never heard one word of the Trump-Zelensky phone call he blew his whistle on: Eric Ciaramella (char-a-mel-ah) – John Brennan's CIA mole into the Trump White House.

Read Sperry's masterful analysis of this guy, and you'll see how he just blew up Shifty's whole inquisition. Here's TTPer Patricia McCarthy's skinny on him.

In the NY Post on Monday (10/28), Jonathan Tobin explained The Pathetic Push to Deny Trump Credit for Killing Baghdadi:

> "The killing meant that for at least a day or two, the Democrats' effort to impeach Trump by any means necessary didn't dominate the news cycle. Instead of slanted commentary justifying twisting the president's conversation with Ukraine's leader into an impeachable crime, the country was reminded instead of one of Trump's inarguable successes: the destruction of the ISIS caliphate that stubbornly resisted Obama's half-hearted efforts."

Wait until the Durham indictments drop on Obama's CIA Director, Obama's FBI Director, and others organizing a treasonous coup against the elected President of the United States. Impeachment dominating the news cycle will be so yesterday.

Here's what to read this week on what Barr and Durham are planning:

Bill Barr Has Pulled the Trigger and Altered the Landscape – The Deep State Does Not Truly Understand the Peril They Now Face.

Durham Opens Criminal Probe, IG Report Due, Brennan, Clapper Lawyer Up.

All The Russia Collusion Clues Are Beginning To Point Back To John Brennan.

The Case for Indicting John Brennan. Lock him up!

Hint: what will put Brennan away is Clapper ratting him out to save himself. Let's hope Clapper doesn't get suicided first.

Meanwhile, enjoy Jim Gheraghty's trick-no-treat for the Dems on Halloween Eve (10/31): Bonfire of the Democrat Candidates' Vanities. Kirsten, Beto, Julian, Cory, Kamala who? Crash and burn. Buttplug is next. And today (11/01), Fauxcahontas wants to spend $52 trillion on Medicare-for-All with no middle class tax rise? If she's a space alien, space alien IQ's must be lower than White House correspondents – or those who believe her.

Could it be that SloJoe, the most brain-damaged, baggage-carrying, vulnerable-on-stilts of them all will be the last man standing?

Here is one basic fundamental overall reason for the disintegration and degradation of American culture we see all around us in ubiquity: The Brown Thumb of the Left. Unlike those with a green thumb with every living thing they touch growing and flourishing, everything the Left touches turns into feces. Everything.

This week's example comes from that bastion of Leftardism, Seattle. Two news reports on the latest cultural fecalism taking place there:

Seattle Schools Plan Curriculum to 'Explore' Cultural Appropriation of Math.

Mathematics a tool of racial oppression, Seattle public schools committee says.

Welcome to Woke Math, that teaches Kindergartners math is racist, a form of Western white male oppression. Understand – the Left is a Cultural Terminator. They will never stop, they will never relent satisfied to leave us alone. Their robotic unswervable obsession is to destroy every and any last vestige of decency, morality, and normality in American culture.

They hate us, they mean to eliminate us, meaning the proximate necessity to save ourselves is Trump and the Pubs wiping them out exactly one year from overmorrow, Tuesday November 3, 2020. Then and with that, there's no more defense – only offense 24/7 until the Left's capacity to destroy us is itself destroyed.

With the impending collapse of the Impeachment Inquisition and indictment of the Brennan Cabal, the odds of victory in 2020 are rising. This was helped today (11/01) with the Jobs Report of a booming economy. Even Drudge had to celebrate:

Yes, 52 weeks in political time is a millennium. But if PDJT can keep this up until then, he's In Like Flynn for another four years.

Meanwhile, POTUS is doing his best to correct his "catastrophically bad idea" (as General John Kelly described it) in allowing Erdogan to invade northern Syria.

On Tuesday (10/29) at a press conference in Irbil, Iraqi Kurdistan, the US military commanders declared: "We're committed to the Kurdistan Region and the Peshmerga." Yesterday (10/31), Fox reported: US military returns to Syria to protect oil fields; Kurdish leader accuses Turkey of 'continuing its war'.

That war has now created 300,000 Kurdish refugees, their homes and villages turned to rubble, hungry cold and sick in makeshift refugee camps, with humanitarian Christian groups like Samaritan's Purse and Free Burma Rangers, and a dozen other relief organizations desperately trying to help.

Here's a report yesterday (10/31) on Relief for the Displaced in Northern Syria. And this is Dave Eubank of the Free Burma Rangers describing the situation. As you know, my son Brandon is with him and videoed this. At 2:55 is his Christian prayer of love for President Trump:

Worth noting this week is UN Investigator Carla Del Ponte demanding Turkish Dictator Erdogan be prosecuted for war crimes in his invasion of northern Syria. She is the former Swiss attorney general who has herself prosecuted war criminals in Rwanda, Serbia and elsewhere.

Folks, that's a wrap. Rebel and I leave this weekend for our Moroccan Magic Wheeler Expedition. We have a Thanksgiving-Christmas break, but start 2020 in style with our Sailing the Caribbean Dream mid-January…

Followed by Hidden Burma in February…

Next year is going to drive you crazy unless you take time to escape the craziness. No better way to start the year doing so than joining me on one of these life-memorable adventures. The time for a great adventure in your life really is now.

But we can take only one more couple on Sailing the Caribbean Dream. Time to make your dream come true.
