HALF-FULL REPORT 09/05/25

On TTP Wednesday (9/03) in RFK Jr Over The Target, you read:

> “Tomorrow, Thursday (9/04), Kennedy will testify at a hearing of the Senate Finance Committee. We’ll see who’s in Big Pharma’s pockets by those who have a temper tantrum towards him. For all of this shows RFK, Jr. is directly over the right target.”

You just saw above how deep in those pockets Ron Wyden (D-OR) is. Then Kennedy accuses straight to Pocahontas Warren’s face, “You’ve taken $855,000 from pharmaceutical companies, Senator!”

> ?ROASTED: Robert F. Kennedy Jr. WRECKS Elizabeth Warren!

One after the other, the Committee Dems went wacko on Bobby as Big Pharma had instructed them to do. The result was sound and fury signifying nothing: Kennedy Turns Tables on Democrats in Fiery Hearing. The beatdown went on for three hours. At the end, The Dems demanded he resign. Bobby just laughed at them.

What the Dems demonstrated is that, like all those on the Woke Left, they are in a constant state of amygdala hijack, their emotions control their brains, not their capacity to reason. Thus they suffer TDS, Trump Derangement Syndrome, MDS, Musk Derangement Syndrome – and now KDS. As John Klar explains: Kennedy Derangement Syndrome Running Rampant.

That's why he had to explain reality to them as you would to a child:

> "If you just want to turn everything into a soundbite...you can't have a grown-up conversation. And they think I'm being evasive because I won't make a kind of a statement that's almost religious in nature: 'It'd save a million lives.' Well, there's no data to support that...I'm… pic.twitter.com/8PwJl4ZA7T

So MAHA, Bobby! Was this a genius move by Donaldus Magnus or what?

How I wish that either I or someone with historical understanding could have counseled POTUS before he composed this, for it is seriously problematic.

The words “Communist China” and “Freedom” do not go together. Mao’s Communist forces fought their fellow Chinese – those of Chiang Kai-shek – not the Japanese during WWII. Mao had nothing to do with defeating Japan – America did that at Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

But America certainly did have something to do with enabling Mao’s Communists to defeat Chiang’s Nationalists by 1949 and create Communist China. And the American most responsible was the biggest jerk of a general we had in WWII, “Vinegar Joe” Stilwell.

Such a jerk that he feuded with everybody, especially Chiang whom he derided as “Peanut,” and Claire Chennault of Flying Tigers fame. The one friend Stilwell had was George Marshall, Roosevelt’s 5 Star General of the Army during WWII, Truman’s Secretary of State.

After the war, Chennault championed Chiang, knowing that with US support his forces could defeat Mao’s Communists. But Stilwell had so poisoned Marshall’s mind against Chiang, the aid was denied, allowing Mao to win by 1949, with Chiang and his Kuomintang forces retreating to Taiwan.

History really is stochastic, a one-off series of unrepeatable events. One single jerk’s personal hatred for one single man changed history for the catastrophically worse.

So what was this craziness all about on Wednesday (9/03): China Unveils Full Land, Sea And Air Nuclear Triad For First Time, Weaponized 'Robot Wolves' At Largest-Ever Military Parade.

The official Chicom government excuse was to celebrate "the 80th anniversary of victory over Japan and the end of World War II." But that's a joke. The day before, September 2, 1945, Japan unconditionally surrendered to America on the deck of the USS Missouri in Tokyo Bay, formally ending the war.

No wonder Trump was miffed, as there was not the slightest whisper of a mention that America won the war, certainly not the Chicoms. It reminds me of this:

You see this painting all over North Korea, portraying Nork founder Kim Il Sung (1912-1994) and his wife winning World War II by fighting Japanese soldiers in the Paekdu Mountains. All any North Korean knows about WWII is Kim's myth, certainly not the truth that Kim and his wife spent the entire war in Khabarovsk, Soviet Siberia.

So it's perversely funny that Kim's lardball grandson Kim Jong-un, who runs NorkLand now, was on the parade's viewing stand along with Putin as…

No, the explicit purpose of the parade was to threaten Taiwan, all China's neighbors, and the US with an egregious display of Chicom military weaponry (and how nicely Chicom soldiers can march in formation). One example was an upgraded intercontinental ballistic missile, called the Dongfeng-5C (DF-5C), that Xi so peacefully calls the "Guam-killer" – specifically designed to wipe out the US military base 2,500 miles from Beijing in the Pacific.

On Monday (9/01), Xi gave a speech to a number of Asian country leaders. To say it reeked of hypocrisy is a gross understatement.

“We should adhere to sovereign equality” – not for Taiwan of course. “We should abide by international rule of law” – yeah, like shipping thousands of tons of drug-making chemicals from China to the Sinaloa Drug Cartel to kill thousands of Americans.

“We should set an example in championing the common values of humanity” – like freedom and democracy which there is none of in China. Oh, wait, he actually had the gall to preach: “We should promote a more democratic, just and equitable international political and economic order.”

Right – how about sharing the South China Sea instead of claiming it all, like a Kindergarten child who says all the toys are his.

Two days after this speech (9/03): Pirro Strikes Blow to Narco-Trafficking: Historic Seizure of Precursor Chemicals Exposes China–Cartel Drug Route.

> "The two maritime seizures occurred in international waters just off the coast of Panama and consisted of 1,300 barrels of the two dangerous chemicals. Emphasizing the enormity of the seizure, Pirro told reporters it would take 24 semi-tractor trailers to move the barrels to a secure location for storage."

The story is a must-read – another clear example that the Chicom government of China is a terrorist organization waging an undeclared war against the United States.

Thucydides 460-400 BC

Ever hear of something called the Thucydides Trap? It's a silly theory of Harvard Prof Graham Allison claiming "history shows" when an emerging power threatens an established power, the collusion normally results in war. His egghead followers think he proves war is "inevitable" between the US and China, usually arguing we must appease China to avoid it.

This is drivel. How about a list of wars between two real democracies, Graham? It's a very small list. China vs America is no trap, it's because China is a fascist government not a democracy. Real peace with China can only come when the Chicoms give up their monopoly of power and allow a peaceful transfer of government to another party in a free and fair election. Same with Russia or Iran or NorkLand for that matter.

Our diplomacy towards China should be based on the demand that real peace with us and the world requires they give up their monopoly of power and have a true and genuine democratic government and rule of law with rights for individual Chinese citizens.

Over to you, Marco…

On Wednesday (9/03), POTUS met with incoming President of Poland Karol Nawrocki. Upon his arrival at the White House, Trump had him stand at the entrance for a special moment. This is what happened.

On August 28, Polish fighter pilot and graduate of the US Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Maj. Maciej ‘Slab’ Krakowian, died when his F-16 went out of control and crashed. He was a hero admired by millions of Poles who mourned his death.

As Trump and Nawrocki stood at the White House, US Airforce F-16s and F-35s flew over them in “Missing Man” formation to honor Major Krakowian. It brought tears to Nawrocki’s eyes that the President of the United States would be so thoughtful for his country.

Their meeting in the Oval Office could not have gone better, solidifying US-Polish relations. And on a very auspicious day for Poland:

There's a new star in the MAGA sky. He's Florida's Surgeon General Joseph Ladapo (Harvard MD, PhD). On Wednesday (9/03):

Scott Jennings is 100% correct about total dirtbag Minnesota Governor Tampon Tim Walz. Sometimes this language is justified. On Tuesday (9/02):

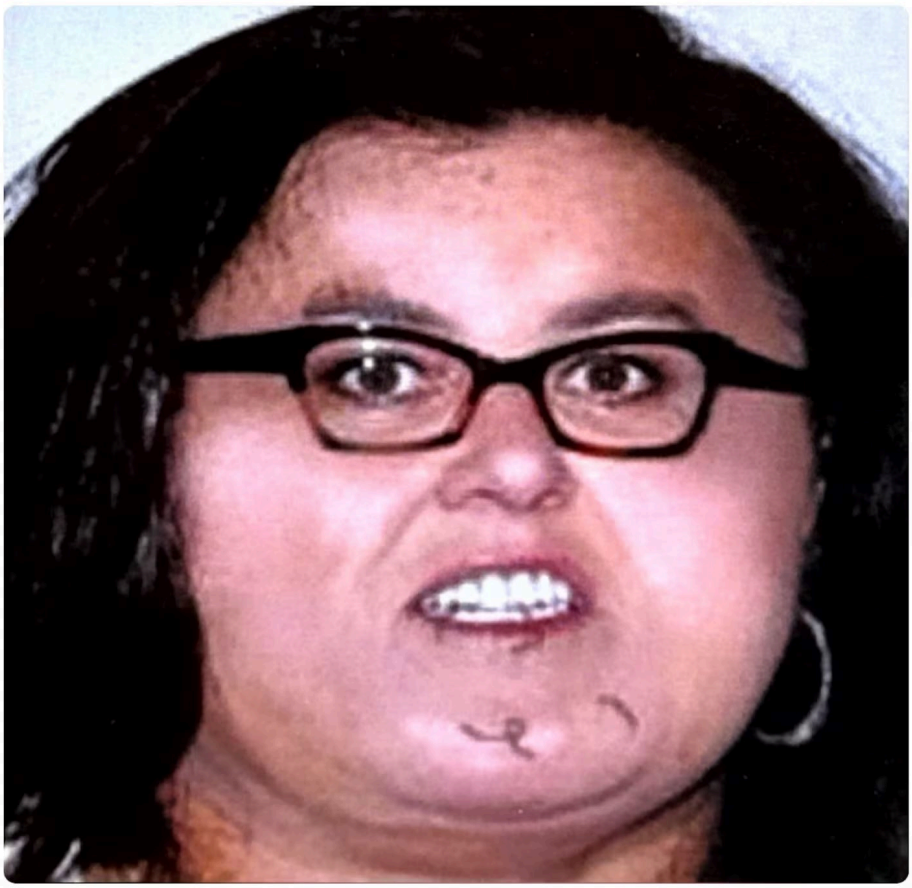
That's wrap, folks. We'll close with this observation. POTUS Trump has got the best sense of humor of any president save for Reagan. A key part of that sense is you're not knowing if he's serious or putting you on or just to rattle Dem cages. Like this. What do you think?

Donald J. Trump
@realDonaldTrump


As previously mentioned, we are giving serious thought to taking away Rosie O'Donnell's Citizenship. She is not a Great American and is, in my opinion, incapable of being so!
