HALF-FULL REPORT 10/18/19

Last night (10/17), the President held a massive Keep America Great 2020 rally in Dallas. The American Airlines Center was packed to its 20,000 seat capacity – as you can see above – with a huge overflow of many thousands more watching on huge screens outside.

No Dem candidate has a ghost of a chance competing with this – for it's not simply the gargantuan size of the crowds at his rallies but the crowds' overwhelming excitement and enthusiasm. And as always, Trump never disappoints them, with his stirring pro-America message that brings them roaringly to their feet time and again.

The entire 90-minute video is here, while the transcript is here.

Every presidential election in modern memory is claimed to be "the most important election of our lives." This one in 2020 really is. POTUS was precisely correct when he said last night:

> "The economy is booming. Our people are prospering. Our country is thriving and our nation is stronger than ever before. But the more America achieves, the more hateful and enraged these crazy Democrats become. Crazy. They're crazy. They're crazy. At stake in this fight is the survival of American democracy itself. Don't kid yourself. That's what they want. They are destroying this country but we will never let it happen… You know, I really don't believe anymore that they love our country. I don't believe it."

Trouble is, the Dems are more than just plain crazy – like Flat Earthers or folks who say they were kidnapped by space aliens, those with loose screws in their heads that are harmless. No, Dems are criminally insane, full bore fascist insane – and they have no morals whatever holding them back from achieving a fascist tyranny over each of our lives.

The barbarians are at the gates. And there's only one man to stop them. You know who he is – he's The Man Who's In The Way:

That's why even when he makes mistakes – as all humans do – we must realize that without him, without him winning in 2020, our lives, our freedom, our prosperity, our country are sitting ducks for the Fascicrats.

For we all know the alternative if Trump loses:

So here we go. There are a number of TTPers upset about my article last week (10/09), President Trump's Infatuation with an Islamofascist Who Hates America. I was praying that POTUS would walk this cat back quickly realizing his ghastly mistake. Instead he double-downed and compounded it.

To those who disagree, let me say respectfully, I know what I'm talking about and you don't. How do I know? Because my son, USMC Captain (ret.) Brandon Wheeler, is on the ground with the Kurds seeing with his own eyes what the Turks are doing right now as you are reading this.

He is verifying to me that there is no cease-fire, it's all a fraudulent PR-act by Erdogan who scammed Pompeo and Pence like he was playing with children. The New York Times editorial yesterday (10/17), Turkey's Victory Over Donald Trump – and boy does it hurt to say this – is accurate.

As is the Daily Mail this morning (10/18): The Ceasefire Deal Trump Hailed as a 'Great Day for Civilization' Has Already Been Broken.

Brandon is with two Christian humanitarian groups, Franklin Graham's Samaritan's Purse (the link is to their report today), and with Dave Eubanks, a friend of our family's who heads Free Burma Rangers. Please watch these two short clips of Dave recorded today (10/18):

Just as I have no idea why President Trump would be blind to the evil of Turkey's Islamofascist dictator – that he, for example, is the sponsor of ISIS – I have no idea why he would be incomprehensively callous to say this last night:

You have to let Turkey – with its huge army, jet fighters and bombers – and the Kurds "fight like two kids in a lot. You got to let them fight and then you pull them apart. But it was unconventional, but they fought for a few days and it was pretty vicious"?????

I'm sorry, Mr. President, but that's disgusting – and the vicious fighting is still ongoing by Turks and its "Free Syrian Army" thugs upon defenseless civilians that your phony ceasefire is doing nothing to prevent.

Brandon and Dave are at the front lines trying to bring humanitarian aid to thousands of people trapped in the Syrian town of Sari Kani (alt. Sere Kanye). Here is a report of the current (5pm this afternoon) situation there: Death Toll Rises as Syrian Ceasefire Fails.

It will continue to rise among the Kurds, Arabs, and Syrian Christians as Turkish soldiers free upwards of 10,000 ISIS terrorists captured by the Kurds. The problem is the Kurds were too humanitarian with them.

The Kurds knew ISIS terrorists couldn't be sent to Turkey to hold them as Erdogan would have set them free with weapons back to Syria. No one else in their right minds would take them like Trump demanding EU countries do so. If it were me, I'd 've given every single one of them a double-tap, bonfired them into ashes and spread the ashes to the winds. Net cheloveka net problema, as FDR's buddy Uncle Joe liked to say.

But the Kurds didn't, trying to treat them as the human beings they once were but ceased to be. Now Erdogan gets to create ISIS terrorism in Syria and Iraq all over again.

POTUS is going to be fantastically lucky to avoid a horrific humanitarian disaster – which if it happens will be totally his fault. Already he's provided an armory of ammo to the enemedia who for once will not be using fake news to attack him.

Once again, I ask for your prayers for him. He has to win in 2020, the future of our country depends on it – and his infatuation with an Islamist monster has damaged his chances. Trump is Horatio at America's Bridge (August 2017). Pray he sees the light on who the monster really is.

Note: for the latest on what's happening in Syrian Kurdistan – known as "Rojava" – see the Twitter feed of the Rojava Information Center.

Wonder why Pelosi Galore won't authorize a formal impeachment proceeding? A TTPer explains:

> "I can't wait until the impeachment Senate trial - when Trump's world class attorneys can call Nancy Pelosi, Jerry Nadler, Adam Schiff, Hillary Clinton, James Comey, John Brennan, James Clapper and Barack Obama to the witness stand - put them under oath - and cross examine them."

Shifty Schitt's Salem Witch Trial is rapidly becoming a joke on Capitol Hill. This meme is popping up via WhatsApp on staffer smartphones all over the Hill.

FYI… here's the latest meme Pub staffers are sending to Dem staffers for the sole purpose of irritating them:

Speaking of Congress, kinda funny all the panegyrics for House Oversight Chairman Elijah Cummings who died Wednesday (10/17) – with even the White House flying the flag at half-mast. How many other Congresscritters get this treatment when they pass on?

Last August, the HFR 08/02/19 had this to say about him:

> "The 2018 federal budget gave Baltimore $16 Billion in HUD housing grants. Where did the money go? Elijah Cummings has represented about half of Baltimore and most of Howard County since 1996.

Maybe we should ask his wife, Maya Rockeymoore Cummings. She chairs the Maryland Democrat Party and owns the non-profit Center for Global Policy Solutions and the for-profit firm, Global Policy Solutions, LLC.

Her non-profit received millions in donations from organizations impacted by Rep. Cumming's committee work. For instance, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, the philanthropic arm of the Johnson & Johnson Pharmaceutical family was a substantial contributor until 2018. Rep. Cummings took a hardline stance against Johnson & Johnson after the cash stopped flowing to his wife."

That August 2 HFR was just days after Trump called Baltimore "a disgusting rat and rodent infested mess" – which of course it is after 23 years of Cummings being its Congressman. As I said, all the half-mast flag praise now is kinda funny.

Okay, that's funny-peculiar not funny-haha. So here's funniest-haha headline of the week. From the Philadelphia Inquirer on Wednesday (10/16):

Mark Sanford kicked off his presidential campaign against Donald Trump in Philly. One person showed up.

Mark who?

POTUS need have no fear of any primary competition. Actually he need have no fear from any Dem in the general – save for one giant fly in the electoral ointment. Make that 22 million flies.

ICE director Ken Cuccinelli on Wednesday (10/16) reported MIT's analysis that there are at least 22 million illegal aliens in the US now. And every one needs to have their vote for Dems count else that be racist voter suppression – say the Fascicrats.

So it was intriguing that Ken also said that "birthright citizenship can be ended without a constitutional amendment." Goodbye anchor babies. Let's hope that this is Ken's first warning shot he's going to do something about ensuring no illegals will vote in 2020.

Speaking of illegal aliens, how cool is this? On Saturday (10/12), Mexico's Police and National Guard Stopped and Disbanded a Caravan of 2,000 Migrants from Central America and Africa. This, thanks to the new agreement between POTUS and AMLO, Mexico's president.

"This caravan no longer exists," migrant rights advocate Irineo Mujica told the Associated Press. Hundreds of them are from Africa – how in the world do penniless people from Africa cross the Atlantic and the Caribbean, enter Guatemala with no papers or visa, and hook up with some "caravan/asylum" scam to sneak into the US via Mexico?

How completely nuts is this? Can you imagine how many picoseconds it would take you to hammer shut this down if you were in charge?

A lot of TTPers are "of a certain age." You know that the older we get, the weirder the world gets. And remember Aristotle's observation that "you cannot teach wisdom to the young." True in 330 BC, true today more than ever.

How weird? Yesterday (10/17), 105 member states of the United Nations voted to place Venezuela on the UN Human Rights Council, whose official mission is to "promote and protect human rights around the world." Little wonder Trump in 2018 officially withdrew US membership and participation in this fraud.

Or how about on Wednesday (10/16), Norkland's Kim Jong-un channeling his inner Putin and riding a white horse on sacred Mount Paekdu?

As you may know, I've been to Norkland three times, all three to the sacred mountain. All the pics are in Pelosi in Pyongyang (September 2010) – scroll way down for pics of Paekdu, a volcano with Lake Chon in the caldera, and ubiquitous propaganda paintings of Kim's father and grandfather posing on the rim.

I know POTUS has seen this and is quite familiar with the Nork sacred mountain-secret cabin myth. He had to get a great laugh out of the Kim On A White Horse story.

Before we close, I have to tell you about the world's most interesting soccer game (known as "football" in the rest of the world). It will take place tomorrow (10/19) at The Hague, capital city of the Netherlands. It's East Turkestan vs. West Papua.

East Turkestan is what its native inhabitants call China's far west colony of Xinjiang, which borders the "Stans" of the former Soviet Union collectively known as West Turkestan (Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, and Tajikistan). The Chicoms have incarcerated over a million local Moslems there in concentration camps – the worst human rights atrocity on the planet now, with not one Moslem country on the planet condemning it – think about that.

West Papua is the western half of the huge island of New Guinea that belongs to Indonesia – which its natives are in a constant state of rebellion against.

The HFR is rooting for both teams – and for both the countries they represent to be free and sovereign from their colonial oppressors.

Just so you know, I will be leading a Wheeler Expedition to West Turkestan (all five Stans) next May – we call it Hidden Central Asia. Click for details to have a life-memorable adventure.

I am also planning an extraordinary expedition to West Papua next summer – to the glaciers of the Carstenz Pyramid (the highest mountain between the Andes and the Himalayas), the penis-gourd-wearing natives of the Baliem Valley, and the world's greatest snorkeling/diving of Raja Ampat. Details soon forthcoming.

Meanwhile, we have space for only one more couple on our fabulous Sailing the Caribbean Dream in January. This really is the fantasy superyacht dream of a lifetime – click to make it a part of your life.

And we still have a few spaces on Hidden Burma. You don't get more luxuriously – and safely – exotic than this.

Okay – we close with the fulfilling realization that all libtards with their enemedia brethren have had to endure, as of Wednesday (10/16) – no matter how pathological their attempts to prevent it – 1,000 days of a Trump Presidency.

And even more fulfilling is the realization that they will now have to endure 1,557 more days! That's starting with 10/17/19, with 2020 as a leap year with 366 days and counting Jan 20, 2024 as he's still POTUS until noon inauguration of President Pence.

That's got to give you the warm fuzzies.

Many thanks to Mike Ryan for his truly extraordinary HFRs over the last three weeks. Your brilliance is a TTP treasure, Mike.
