HALF-FULL REPORT 12/27/19

Welcome to not only the last HFR of the year, but the last HFR of the decade. Goodbye to the twenty-tens, hello to the twenty-twenties.

At the start of 2010, we still had seven more interminable years to suffer through of the Hate America Presidency of the execrable man I called Zero. Because O=Zero. (Written in June 2008, it went so viral that Snopes had to verify as True that I wrote it.)

Those years and that presidency seem a distant memory today. OBE (Overtaken By Events) on steroids.

Speaking of eclipses…

On Monday (12/23), the NY Post headlined: [Hunter Biden is the subject of multiple criminal investigations related to "fraud, money laundering and a counterfeiting scheme."]

In addition to his Burisma corruption in Ukraine, the filing claims Hunter was involved with a scheme to rip off the Sioux Indian tribe for $60 million for which three of his business partners were found guilty. Hunter skated at the time.

Room-temp IQ is evidently hard-wired into male Biden genes. Rather than buy the woman's silence (for a pittance as she she's suing for $11K in legal fees) whom he had a child with, Hunter allows enormously damaging media coverage.

And his father Joe is pathologically stupid enough to send out this Christmas card pretending his son doesn't exist, immediately drawing massive media attention and ridicule. Can't fix stupid, Joe. It's not a good look.

As George Bardmesser points out, Quid Pro Joe kicked off his campaign in Iowa last Saturday (12/21) with a rally that attracted maybe 90 people: “A guy who can barely get 90 people to come listen to him talk is up against a guy who can fill sports arenas.”

Like the HFR predicted last week, expect HRC to spend the next five weeks sweeping Joe aside before the Iowa Caucus on Feb. 03.

Yep, it will be Her Wretchedness – and not, by the way, Moochelle, aka “Big Mike.” The simple reason why was made clear by TTPer Edd Forke, who kindly posted on the Forum:

Not that The PIAPS has any better chance against The Don a second time. Here is her Christmas Eve tweet up right now. Countless wags couldn’t resist commenting, “Hey, Hillary – your Christmas tree is as crooked as you are!”

We'll be looking forward to what 2020 may have in store for us next week (HFR 01/03/20). Let's have some fun now looking back on 2019 as it comes to a close. Here's a sample of the HFR's favorite 2019 memes.

Climatard
(KLY-mit-tard)
A person with no formal education or training in science, who believes that carbon dioxide is a pollutant and that the world's climate is being disastrously altered by human emissions of this vital gas which is essential to life. Favors drastic, unreasonable measures, with no proof they will have any effect and which will cause real, immediate economic devastation for the poor and middle class. Flies into a rage if you don't agree with him.

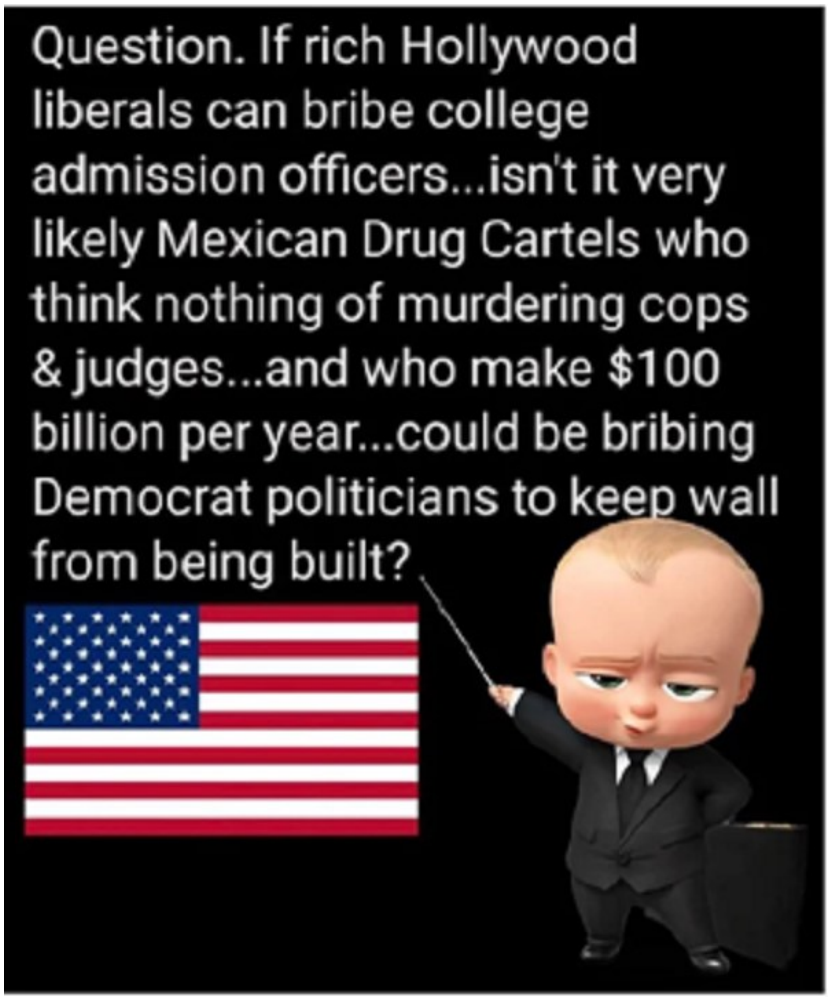
No one is above the law!
.. except Joe Biden, Hunter Biden, Hillary Clinton, John Kerry, Ihlan Omar, Al Sharpton, illegal leakers, Russian hoaxers, treasonous coup-scammers and 30 million illegal aliens.



Question. If rich Hollywood liberals can bribe college admission officers...isn't it very likely Mexican Drug Cartels who think nothing of murdering cops & judges...and who make $100 billion per year...could be bribing Democrat politicians to keep wall from being built?

The Magic Black Hat

The other day I needed to go to the emergency room. Not wanting to sit there for 4 hours, I put on my MAGIC BLACK HAT.

When I went into the E.R., I noticed that 3/4 of the people got up and left.

I guess the decided that they weren't that sick after all. The hat cut at least 3 hours off my waiting time.

Here is the hat.

It also works at the DMV. It saved me 5 hours there.

At the Laundromat, three minutes after entering, I had my choice of any machine, most still running.

But... don't try it at McDonald's. The whole crew got up and left and I never got my order.

DEMOCRATS, THE TEST RESULTS ARE BACK AND DONALD TRUMP IS YOUR DADDY

For all the libtard/demtard/commietard hate-filled insanity this year, it's crucially important to appreciate that Trump – and all normal Americans – have triumphed over it.

The Shampeachment is a Clown Show, the Dems have suffered one yuge setback after another (the biggest being the total dud of the Mueller Report), the whole year has left them with nothing but impotent rage.

Meanwhile, the Trump Economy is coming up roses everywhere – stocks at record levels (DJIA, S&P, and NASDAQ above 9,000!), unemployment at record lows (for women, blacks, hispanics, everyone), and workers across the board getting fatter paychecks.

Putting that together is a recipe for Dem Disaster City in 2020. While we'll be discussing the caveats to this next week, the odds are looking good now for a Trump-fueled 21st Century Roaring Twenties.

It's time now to thank all those who have contributed so much to TTP over the past year. First of course is the glue who holds TTP together – TTP's manager Miko. Thanks, Miko! And to Richard our Webmaster, who uncannily fixes any glitch that comes along.

Then there are our writers and contributors – Jack Kelly, Richard Rahn, Michael Ledeen, Patricia McCarthy, plus Victor Davis Hanson, Roger Simon, and many others. Thanks to you all so very much for your enlightenment and insights.

Certainly not last are our commentators on the Forum. I appreciate you all. I'd like to express my particular admiration to Skye, Mike Ryan, Joe Katzman, and Yasuhiko Kimura for sharing their brilliance with us. Special thanks to Jack Kelly and Mike Ryan for manning the HFR helm while I've been away on any expedition.

I can't wait to see what all of you will be saying in 2020!

****

It's also been an extraordinary year for Wheeler Expeditions. Rebel and I have had so many marvelous adventures with TTPers in 2019 – exploring Central Asia and the Himalayas, dream safaris in Africa, magical times in Morocco, and so much more.

One bottom line for 2020 will be Dem Derangement beyond anything you can imagine – far beyond what we saw in 2019. You'll want – and badly need – to escape from it. Wheeler Expeditions can provide this! Just look at what our Wheeler Expeditions for 2020 are so far – with more to come.

So be sure and join the WX Adventurer's Club to get advance notice of an escape from 2020 Dem Chaos. Trust me – you're going to need this. And have a life-memorable world-class experience at the same time.

Folks, that's a wrap – for the week, for the year, for the decade. Have a joyously celebratory New Year's Eve. We all deserve it.
