HALF-FULL REPORT 07/26/24

When Israel's Bibi Netanyahu addressed a Joint Session of Congress on Wednesday (7/24), he received a wildly enthusiastic reception by almost all Members, Democrat and Republican, who got a lot of exercise repeatedly rising to their feet giving him standing ovations. A collection of excerpts:

While his funniest line was comparing Palestinian protestors carrying "Gays for Gaza" signs to those proclaiming "Chickens for KFC," his most solemnly truthful assertion was, "They stand with evil."

With that, it was clear he wasn't just condemning the "useful idiots" rioting and burning American flags right outside the Capitol Building where he was speaking, but those inside in attendance like Dem Rashida Tlaib holding a "War Criminal" sign, or who were boycotting his speech like Ilhan Omar.

In fact, 9 Dem Senators and 28 Dem House Members – plus 1 GOP, Thomas Massie – refused to attend. Scroll down in this link, Senators and Representatives Boycotting Netanyahu's Speech, for who they are and their quotes for why. There was one other refusnik who wouldn't attend: the President of the Senate. They all stand with evil.

If you look in the first video above to see who's behind Bibi, you see Speaker Mike Johnson and some old guy. Who's he? Dem Sen. Ben Cardin of Maryland, who's substituting for Senate President Pro-Tem Patty Murray who's boycotting, because the actual Senate President is as well. Article I of the Constitution: "The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote, unless they be equally divided." Yep, VP Cackles, on the side of evil.

It's summer, the Silly Season when all manner of weirdness flourishes to be gone by the first frost. FJB says he's running, "In it to win it," then suddenly turns into a mumbling robot telling the country he has to quit attempting a second term in order to "save democracy" which he never explains what that could possibly mean.

The dying legacy media instantly obeys their orders from the Deep State/Dem Elite and begins erasing anything damaging in Cackles' record while eulogizing her to the Oort Cloud. A lot of good that will do any of them. Note first that FJB did not announce his decision on any television channel, dead tree publication, or woketard social media: He announced it on Twitter-X, with 426 million views.

Elon Musk's X dominates US consumption of news now, leaving the woketard media in the dust. Read this for example: CNN Death Spiral — Ratings Drop to 396,000 Total Viewers. That's the population of Wichita, Kansas. While Fox has gained 34% primetime viewership since 2023, MSNBS has lost 33%.

Bottom line: the 2020 ability of woketard media to control their narrative and prevent American voters from discovering its lies (or even knowing about them) is gone, da svidanya, arrivederci, adios.

But not for lack of trying. Thus: Legalized Press-titution: Media Coverage of Kamala Has Reached Shameless Fangirl Levels Already. The “frothing, shameless gushing over Kamala” the author details is laughably sickening.

However: Community Notes and Elon Musk Tag Team to Dunk All Over Latest Incredible Media Defense of Kamala Harris Musk and truth win again.

That’s why that wily wokester, James ‘Ragin’ Cajun’ Carville warns: James Carville Delivers Stark Warning To Buoyant Democrats Over Kamala Harris. Stop the triumphalism, he advises, do a reality check, as this will be a tough, tough race.

We can see why, as the reinvention of VP Kneepads is off to a bad start: Kamala Harris’s First Campaign Ad Touts Abortion, Trans Pride, Trump Lawfare, and Beyoncé.

Then there’s that phony staged phone call from the Obamas endorsing her:

“OMG. I’m seen some cheesy political videos in my time, but this Obama endorsement of Kamala is full-on Gorgonzola…

— Piers Morgan (@piersmorgan) July 26, 2024”

The voting public will tire of this well before summer’s end. Nonetheless, Elon reminds us:

That, “at its heart, wokeness is divisive, exclusionary and hateful. It basically gives mean people a reason, gives them a shield to be mean and cruel, armored in false virtue. It is a threat to civilization.”

Trump’s response early this morning (7/26) on Truth Social:

Believe it or not, this afternoon, the New York Times took Trump’s side, not the FBI:

Is the Grey Lady hedging its Dem-Woke bets. It’s even questioning whether Kamala is really Black:

Well, she isn't, certainly not "African-American." Her mother Shayamala Gopalan (1938-2009) was a high caste Tamil Brahmin from Madras (Chennai) India. Herf father Donald J. Harris (1938-present) is from Jamaica of Irish and Black African ancestry. Ethnically, Kamala is approximately half Tamil Indian, quarter Irish, quarter Black Jamaican.

She therefore has no American ancestry whatever and cannot be accurately called "African-American" descended from any black slave ancestry. Her father, in fact, reports that his and thus her Jamaican family were notorious slave owners, never slaves. Mother moved to US in 1958, Father moved to US in 1961, met in 1962, had Kamala in 1964 in Oakland, California. She therefor has birthright citizenship having been born inside the US even though neither of her parents were citizens or naturalized citizens at the time.

Nonetheless, the only Black American DNA Kamala has in her is from Willie Brown.

Some Cinderella story. In this morning's Daily Mail (7/26): Kamala Harris The 'Soul-Destroying Bully': Former Staff Expose Shock Details Of Degrading Tirades, Decades-Long 'Toxic' Behavior That Left People In TEARS - And Saw Them Quit At Unprecedented Levels. Behind all the smiles and goofy cackles, she's a real jerk who mistreats those who work for like trash. It's a great must-read.

Yesterday (7/25) in the Wall Street Journal, Trump's former and future Secretary of State Mike Pompeo explained: A Trump Peace Plan For Ukraine. It is stunningly thrilling. Excerpts:

> "There is no evidence that Trump, if elected president, would push Ukraine towards capitulation. Instead, due to Biden administration's weakness, Ukraine finds itself with cities destroyed, hundreds of thousands killed, and millions of refugees, and without the means to win…

> A successful Trump Peace Plan for Ukraine would likely include:

Unleash America's energy potential, restore ties with Saudi Arabia and Israel, and work together against Iran.*

Implement real sanctions against Russia, including the removal of exemptions for Russian banks involved in energy extraction – a crucial revenue source for the Kremlin's military machine.*

Expand the American defense industry and require NATO allies to spend at least 3% of their GDP on defense.*

Establish a US$500 billion "lend-lease" program for Ukraine, which involves providing military aid on a loan basis rather than as a grant.*

Remove all restrictions on the types of weapons Ukraine can receive and use.*

These steps would position Mr. Trump to set the terms of a deal: The war stops immediately. Ukraine builds up substantial defense forces so Russia never attacks again. No one recognizes Russia's occupation and claimed annexation of any Ukrainian territories.

Additionally, Ukraine would be rebuilt using frozen Russian assets and would join NATO and the EU as soon as possible. The Alliance would also create a US$100 billion fund to arm Kyiv, with the US contributing 20% of the total.

If Russia complies with these terms, the West will gradually lift sanctions. They will be fully removed once Ukraine is in both NATO and the EU. These steps, and not the half-> measures of the Biden administration, will end the war, establish a lasting peace, ensure Europe bears the burden of maintaining it, and re-establish freedom and security on the Continent."

Wow. All I can say is the British abbreviation AB-FAB, Absolutely Fabulous. America and Western Civilization desperately need this:

We’re getting to closing here, with this suggestion and admonition. Relax and enjoy the summer. We’re in for an endless clown show of lunacies and black swan distractions, for that’s what the Deep State Dems need to keep your mind off how they tried to murder Trump, how their inflation is preventing people from affording groceries, of the illegal invasion they are using to invalidate an honest election in November, how they are on the side of evil.

Yes, amidst all of that, you still must for your own sake, for your family’s sake, relax and enjoy the simple pleasure of being alive.
