This proposal is a multi-trillion dollar sweetheart deal for the CCP (China makes most of the solar cells, panels, batteries, inverters, and controls most of the necessary mineral mining) and to the elite investors like Warren Buffet who will receive guaranteed returns – typically about 8%) from the monopoly franchise victimized rate payers - meaning you and me. It is also an environmental disaster. Those solar panels last about 25 years before they need to be replaced, and the batteries to store energy for use around sundown, at night, and on cloudy days are good for about half that time. No one has demonstrated economic recycling - all this stuff goes into landfills and is lost forever. Including battery costs, the power will cost about 75 cents per KWH - about 5 times the current cost. This is the kickoff of a multi-trillion dollar racket:
